

CHRIS PETERSEN

Chris Petersen is a country singer/songwriter known for his rich voice and solid country sound. Chris writes lyrics that impact the listener. In 2018 these powerful lyrics won Chris a spot as a finalist in the famed Kerrville songwriting competition in Kerrville, Texas. Becoming a finalist in Kerrville puts Chris in the company of many well known songwriters such as Lyle Lovett, Robert Earl Keen, Tom Russell, Hal Ketchum, Steve Earl, and Nanci Griffith, who have also been finalists at Kerrville.

In May of 2019 Chris is set to release a highly anticipated album with Nashville producer, Trent Willmon. Trent has written songs for countless artists including Blake Shelton, Brad Paisley, Eric Church, Montgomery Gentry, Little Big Town, Cody Johnson, and many more. As a producer Trent has shined. Trent produced the Billboard #1 Album for 2019, Cody Johnson's, "Aint Nothin to it."

On Chris' new album Chris wrote or co-wrote 11 of the 12 songs. Nine of the 12 were co-written by Trent Willmon. The album was recorded at Front Stage Studio in Nashville, TN featuring a live 8 piece band.

Chris has performed at many venues across the country, from Texas, at NRG Park, to Missouri, to the Western states.

Chris has placed a large focus on supporting our veterans, police officers, and first responders. Along with many events and fundraisers aimed at supporting the men and women who serve our communities, Chris has also written songs such as, "He Still Pays the Price," to honor those who pay the price for our freedoms.
